Online registration for SZTE students through MODULO

The first step of the registration process is to fill in, accept the conditions and submit the USZ Library membership declaration in the MODULO system (Submission/Klebelsberg Library/USZ Library membership declaration).

The declaration should only be submitted once, because from the following semester the renewal will be automatic until the end of the university studies.

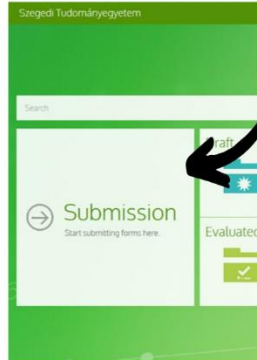

After the membership declaration is submitted correctly, the last step of the process is a personal data verification at the Loaning section's desk, which can be performed from the first weekday after the online submission during library opening hours.

Registration Guide

<https://tinyurl.com/yyagbbkw>

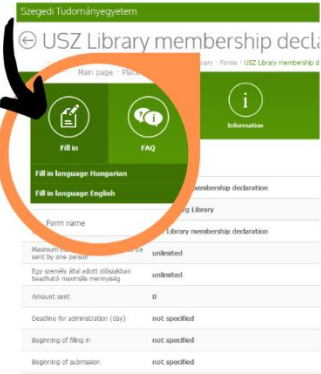

<http://www.ek.szte.hu/english-registration/?lang=en>

1.
Login to Modulo with your Neptun credentials and Click 'Submission'.

2.
Choose Klebelsberg Library, 'USZ Library Membership Declaration' from the list.

3.
Click 'Fill in language English' and check your personal data.

4. On the bottom of the page check 'I accept' the library regulations and the automated circulation system.

5. Click 'Save' first and then click 'Submit'.

6. Come back the next weekday during opening hours and finish the registration personally at the Loaning section's desk. Don't forget to bring your permanent Student card (if you have one) and your passport/residence permit with yourself.

      - other books: you can borrow them for 4 weeks at the circulation desk (10 books at a time)

Computers, lamps, sockets, blankets, librarians on each floor

The Library floor by floor

Elements of the reading room call numbers:

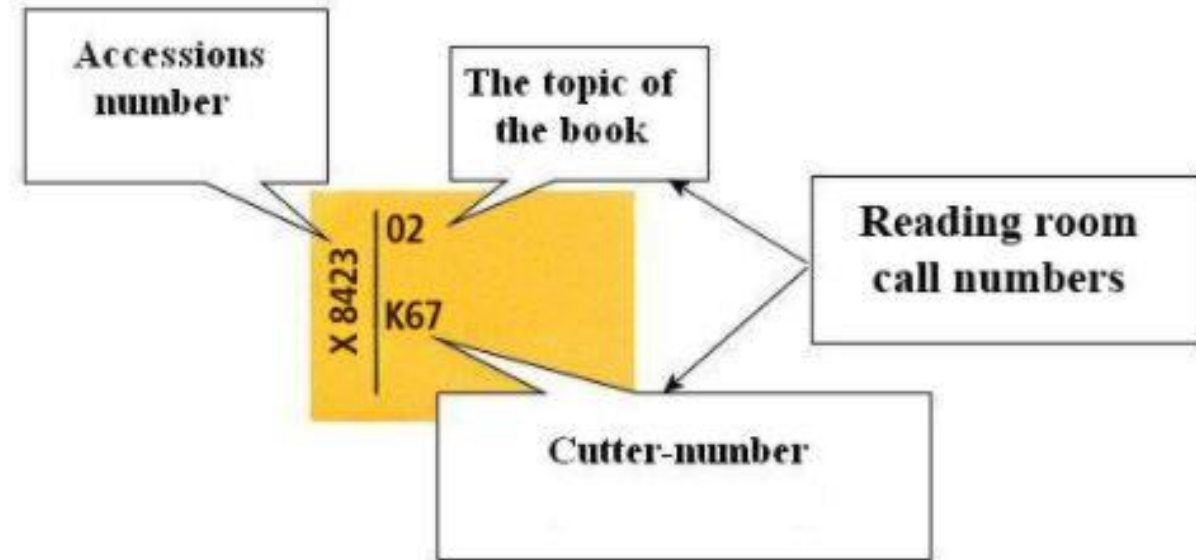

the first group of characters (numbers, occasionally letters are added, e.g. 02): the topic of the book, it gives a general outline of the contents of the book (that is, books with the same notation are side-by-side, therefore users will find books with the same contents at the same place in all languages) the second group of characters (letter+number, e.g. K67): the place of the book within the topic (Cutter-number).

The third group of characters on the label is the accessions number, the individual identifier of the copy.

Librarians are available in every reading room to help finding the books and periodicals both in the catalog and on the shelves.

In the reading areas books and journals are marked with colored labels. On the 1st floor we use yellow, on the 2nd floor green, on the 3rd floor brown, on the 4th floor blue (sciences) and purple (life sciences) labels. In the Oriental Collection, the Music Collection we have white, on the journals of 4th floor blue/purple labels.

Monguz OPAC3 user manual

The Monguz OPAC3 search interface can be used in several languages. Users can change the default language of the interface by clicking on the language code.

(Available languages are the followings:

- Hungarian – HU
- English - EN
- Romanian – RO.)

 qulto
for culture & knowledge

1. Search

During search, the system distinguishes neither between capitals and their lowercase equivalents, nor accented and unaccented letters. Articles and conjunctions are disregarded during the search process. (At least 3 characters must be entered, including the optional truncation symbol.)

Besides the 'Author' field, 'autocomplete' option is also set to the 'Subject-heading' field as default option.

It means that as the user types in the search box, the system offers search predictions that might be similar to the search terms he is typing. These predictions are optional.

The order of search fields is set according to the needs and preferences of the institution.

Truncation, masking

While searching, there is a possibility of truncation which is indicated by * (for instance law*). In this case, results will include all words starting with 'law'. Truncation can be applied at the beginning and at the end of the word, as well, and can substitute any number of characters.

Masking (indicated by ?) substitutes only one character.

1.1. Simple search

<http://www.ek.szte.hu/english-using-the-catalog/?lang=en>

<http://qulto.bibl.u-szeged.hu/en/>

There are nearly three times more online resources (e-books, journals, etc.) than physical stocks.

The reader usually needs the resource, not the database; therefore, every e-document has a record directing you to the exact title. The link can be found in the catalog.

Collection of subscribed online journals:

Contents of the databases can overlap one another (archive, core or current materials): even the whole journal content can be available in the Library catalog.

Most of the resources are available without requiring any password but there are password-protected resources, as well.

Possibilities in EDS (Ebsco Discovery Service):

Online reading

Save Pages → Save Pages to PDF (Page limit: 60 or 100 pages, close the window, search the title again, download 60 or 100 pages more)

E-mail Pages: 60 or 100 pages

Download: it means borrowing → you have to create an EBSCOhost account (those books which can be used by only one user, cannot be borrowed); the e-book becomes illegible after 30 days

Online resources from home: proxy server

<http://www.ek.szte.hu/english-online-resources-from-home/?lang=en>

Online resources are available through academic IP addresses. With the help of a proxy server the online resources of the Klebelsberg Library can be accessed outside the library and the university for students and other registered users of the Library.

Certain settings of the browser should be changed. Please note: after these changes other public web pages cannot be used in that browser, only the electronic resources available through the Klebelsberg Library. If you wish to use other sources paralelly, you should open another browser. If you wish to access the public sources in the original browser you have to reset the proxy settings.

For accessing the service you need a user name (the number on your student's or reader's card) and password, which is derived from your birth date.

We refresh our database of registered users in every 24 hours, therefore this service will not immediately be available for you after your registration or change of your card.

Please note that the trials are not available from home, neither with the help of the proxy server.

Online resources from home: eduID

<http://www.ek.szte.hu/english-online-resources-from-home/?lang=en>

EduID is the user authentication and authorization federation of the Hungarian educational and research institutions. The aim of eduID is to allow the use of services of its members and partners in a mutually agreed, trusted way.

When a user attempts to access such a service, it is their home institution that authenticates them to do and authorization is based on the user information originating from their home institution.

University of Szeged eduID registration: https://www.eduid.u-szeged.hu/reg/en/online\_registration

The list of accessible services is available at the national eduID website: <https://eduid.hu/en/> In those cases when eduID authentication is available, there is no need for the help of a proxy server.

Online resources search interface (EBSCO Discovery Service)

More than 500 international databases, including repositories

Online resources can also be searched in our online catalog, but we recommend you to use EDS (Ebsco Discovery Service). (You can choose language in the top right corner of the window.) This catalog searches the articles of periodicals, so it is ideal for doing searches by topic. This tutorial demonstrates the features of the EDS interface, including how to search for information of interest to you.

Our foreign languages online periodicals can be found in the Publication Finder catalog. This tutorial den Text Finder and EBSCO Discovery Service Interfaces.

Online resources are available through academic IP addresses. With the help of a proxy server the online services provide through the library can be accessed outside the library and the university for those students and employees of the university who are registered users of the Klebelsberg Library.
